ST BENEDICT'S PARISH NEWSLETTER

Eighth Sunday Year C – 3rd March 2019

The disciple is not superior to his teacher; the fully trained disciple will always be like his teacher. (Luke 6, 40)

Preparing for Lent. In the Extraordinary Form the three Sundays before Lent are known as the Season of Septuagesima. We might think of them as a count-down to Lent, a special time of preparation. We can use this time to prepare ourselves prayerfully and spiritually for the precious days of Lent that can be gone in a flash if we are neglectful. A particular challenge of our age is individualism; we have a strong sense of self and, often, a correspondingly weak sense of the reality of other people. Prayer can then be reduced to self-absorbed mindfulness, fasting to dieting, and almsgiving to another feel-good factor that boosts my reputation. None of this is really new; Jesus warns us against these tendencies. St Leo the Great asks us to look carefully within ourselves and, if we see God's mercy working in our lives through any acts of loving kindness we show to others, then we must let it grow in us. If we do, we will become holy, more like God himself, because his own generosity will begin to express itself through us. Then we will long to give what we have saved through fasting to those brothers and sisters of ours who do not have enough. This Lent, let's resolve to be still more open to God's gracious holiness working within us and more deeply aware of the reality of others.

Your parish needs you! The Parish Pastoral Council are seeking volunteers to help with the weekly Masses. We are looking for more Readers, Servers, Eucharistic Ministers, helpers with the Children's Liturgy and Sacristans. In a new development we are also trying to create a team to be responsible for writing the Prayers of the Faithful. Our aim is to get more parishioners involved. If you are willing to help please sign the forms on the lectern in the porch.

Soup and Cheese Lunch on Wednesday 13th March 12pm-2pm in aid of CAFOD, in the parish room of St Benedict's Church. Entrance £4 with a raffle and bring-and-buy table. Please come and taste some of our delicious soups and support this worthwhile charity.

Ash Wednesday, 6th March. We begin our celebration of Lent with Mass and the distribution of ashes in St Benedict's at 7pm. There will also be a Mass at 10am in the Abbey Church.

Starting Friday March 8th and every Friday during Lent, we will be praying The Stations Of The Cross at 7pm at St Benedict's. It takes about fifteen minutes and all are invited to come.

The annual St Patrick's party will take place in the parish room on Saturday 16th March from 6.30pm. Tickets cost £5 a head to include a supper of Irish stew and a drink. There will be music to sing along to and a raffle so come and join us for a fun evening. Are you an EU citizen? The Bishops have asked parishes to advise parishioners who are EU citizens that they need to be aware of the Government's Settlement Scheme, which requires them to apply to protect their existing rights and place in our society. Official information on the Settlement Scheme can be found at: gov.uk/settled-status-eu-citizens-families

The Bishops urge the whole Catholic community to take up Pope Francis's call to welcome, protect, promote and help to integrate everyone who has made their home here – with particular concern at present for our European brothers and sisters.

Martyrology: Ss Perpetua and Felicity.

St Perpetua, a young mother of noble birth, and St Felicity, a heavily pregnant slave girl, were imprisoned at Carthage in 203 because of their Christian faith. Before being put to death by being thrown to wild beasts in the arena, Felicity gave birth to a girl; Perpetua was still nursing her little boy. We have a vivid contemporary account of their martyrdom. Their names are included in the Roman Canon of the Mass.

We pray for the sick of our parish, especially Ron Pullen, Laurence Bloom-Davis, Sarah Molony, Annie Carter, Brian Auty, Basil Durnford, Margaret Reynolds, Dolores Niles, Sheila Noad, Marie-Louise McGarvey and Emmi di Maggio. If you know someone who would like to be added to this list, please let the priest at Mass know their name.
